

Texas Appleseed works to ensure that immigrants with cognitive disabilities receive justice and fair treatment in the immigration court and detention system.

Latest News...

- Monitoring of conditions in immigration detention facilities. Texas Appleseed continues to examine conditions in Texas' immigration detention facilities and to advocate for improved immigration court processes and better quality of care for detainees with cognitive disabilities.
- Updating of landmark findings on immigration detention. We are assisting with the update of our groundbreaking report released in March 2010 on Justice for Immigration's Hidden Population in detention facilities.

TRAINING RESOURCES for attorneys representing immigration detainees with cognitive disabilities.

ATTORNEY TRAINING RESOURCES

HEADLINES

Mentally Ill Immigrants Trapped in Detention Without Attorneys , California Watch
Immigration Judges Should Halt Proceedings Against \_ Noncitizens with Serious Mental Disabilities , JORNAL.U

□

QUICK FACTS:

Immigration Court Locations: Dallas, El Paso SPC, El Paso, Harlingen, Houston SPC, Houston, Port Isabel, San Antoni

-

Immigration detention facilities in Texas: 20